

INVESTOR WARNING AGAINST Plus500UK Ltd -addition

Although company Plus500UK at this point still does not have authorization from the Agency to carry out activities offered via their website within the territory of Republic of Croatia, the Agency informs investors that the said company, based on notification from its home regulatory authority received on July 2 2013, is allowed to perform investment services in relation to derivatives and CDFs directly within the territory of Republic of Croatia.

In relation to other activities of the said company, warning issued on March 27, 2012, still applies.